

WE'RE HIRING!

Take your career to the next level working with amazing people at Norman S. Wright Mechanical Equipment.

ESTIMATOR

Are you a self-driven and meticulous individual interested in estimation and construction planning? Norman S. Wright Mechanical is seeking an Estimator to join our energetic team based in our Rancho Cordova office. We are seeking a professional with a strong work ethic, superior attention to detail, and a genuine willingness to evolve and learn.

As an Estimator, you will be immersed in a collaborative environment, working closely with your team to scrutinize plans and specifications, execute precise quantity takeoffs, and deliver accurate and competitive estimates.

IS THIS YOU?

- A good grasp of construction processes
- Proficiency in reading and extracting vital information from plans, specifications, and other construction documents
- A basic understanding of HVAC/mechanical equipment is desirable
- Exceptional attention to detail
- Capability to work independently in a fast-paced setting with minimal supervision
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office, Adobe, and general computer/software applications
- Familiarity with Bluebeam, OST, or other quantity takeoff software is advantageous
- General knowledge of standard office equipment usage (e.g., printers, scanners, computers)
- Eagerness to learn new programs, processes, and technical product information
- Professional demeanor, outstanding customer service skills, and a strong desire to excel

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN...

- Reviewing plans and specifications
- Conducting quantity takeoffs
- Generating accurate and competitive quotes
- Providing pricing and product information to customers
- Engaging in daily internal communication with team members and manufacturers, with limited outside interactions
- Utilizing computer and web-based pricing and selection tools

WE OFFER...

- Norman S. Wright is an ESOP company, offering employees a unique opportunity for financial participation and growth
- Company group health benefits
- Paid holidays
- Generous paid vacation and sick leave allowances
